

Adult comments from questionnaire – December 2017

“In school children speak knowledgeably about their rights and the rights of others.”

“The children in this school are fully aware of their rights and regularly discuss them.”

“Adults are often heard reinforcing the children’s rights throughout everyday school life, this promotes the children’s knowledge of their rights.”

“Pupils are encouraged to take an active role in their learning and contribute ideas/ suggestions for many events and campaigns.”

“Children contribute fully to the decision making in school from what they want to learn about their topic to what they would like to be their end of term treat for following the behaviour system and respecting the rights of others. Staff and children can be heard throughout school using the language relating to the rights of the children.”